Non-Resident Registered, PEI Membership Application Form 2020

Total Annual Fees: $331.90

Objectives of IDNB:

- To establish, maintain and develop standards of knowledge and skill among its members.
- To govern the practice of interior design in order that the public interest might be served.
- To enhance public awareness of professional quality interior design and its importance to the human environment.
- To advocate quality interior design education and practice throughout New Brunswick and Canada.
- To initiate support and seek the expansion of quality continuing education and professional upgrading among the members of the Association.
- To co-operate with and support the Interior Designers of Canada and its member and allied associations.
- To establish, maintain and develop standards of professional ethics among its members. (See 5 of the By-laws.)
- To advance the Objects set out in the Act

Qualification for membership:

Non-Resident Registered membership is available to applicants who:

- do not reside in New Brunswick;
- have graduated from an interior design program of study granting a degree which when combined with interior design work experience meets the NCIDQ examination eligibility requirements (See Appendix B) and have successfully completed the NCIDQ examination and provide verification of certification to IDNB;
- hold an equivalent membership in a member association of IDC and are members in good standing of that association;
- do not hold a type or category of equivalent membership, in another organisation in a related field of applied design, having a right to grant a license.
- have paid such fees as are established by the Board for Non-Resident Membership.

Privileges and Limitations of Membership:

The responsibilities of Registered members include the following privileges and limitations:

Non-Resident Registered members,

- are non-voting members;
- are responsible for informing the Registrar of changes of information for their listing in the IDNB register of Non-Resident Members;
- may use the designation "IDNB Non-Resident Registered Member" after their names.
- shall complete Continuing Education units of study each calendar year in compliance with the number of units as determined by the Board of Directors;
- shall carry professional liability insurance in the minimum amount determined by the Board from time to time and submit proof with their annual membership fee renewal;
- shall comply to the Code of Ethics at all times. (See 5 of these By-laws.)

Code of Ethics

This Code of Ethics serves not only as a guide to professional interior designers in dealing with complex business relationships but also as an assurance for their clients. All members of the Association will undertake as a condition of their membership to abide by this Code of Ethics. The Code of Ethics for the Association is divided into two parts:

- "Rules of Conduct" are the enforceable ethical standards of the Association;
- "Ethical Conduct and Responsibilities to the Public" recommends behavior beyond that called for in the Rules of Conduct. It is intended as a philosophical recommendation for the professional conduct of members of Interior Designers of New Brunswick.

Rules of Conduct

- A member will not make misleading, deceptive or false statements about professional qualifications, experience or performance.
- A member will not supplant a fellow designer who is already engaged on a project and will not knowingly accept any professional assignment on which another designer has been working, except with the agreement of the other designer, or unless satisfied that the former agreement has been properly terminated.
- A member will not permit his/her name to be used in conjunction with a design or project in which he/she was not directly involved.
- A member will disclose in writing to his/her employer or client prior to any engagement as a practicing member of Interior Designers of New Brunswick any financial interest that he/she may have that could affect his/her impartiality in specifying goods and services.
- A member will be required to state the method of compensation being received for design services to his/her client.

- A member will not receive any financial or other reward in addition to his/her professional form or remuneration.
- A member will not knowingly plagiarize the design of another designer.
- A member will treat his/her fellow designers with respect.
- A member will not disclose confidential information imparted to client or employer or release information concerning his/her said client, employer or business organization unless given prior consent.
- A member, in the case of a dispute not involving him/her directly during his/her engagement on a project, will take an independent position in total fairness to the parties in dispute.
- A member will, in competition with other designers, seek his/her engagement only through knowledge, skill, and by understanding and observing highest professional ethics.
- Notice of contravention of the above ethical standards must be made in writing. A member found in contravention of this Code of Ethics will submit to the ruling of the Executive Committee of the Association of Registered Interior Designers of New Brunswick.

Ethical Conduct and Responsibilities to the Public

To be a professional involves the acceptance of responsibilities to the public. The Association's Rules of Conduct are minimum levels of acceptable conduct and are mandatory and enforceable.

Ethical conduct requires unswerving commitment to honorable behavior, even at the sacrifice of personal advantage.

- A member will at all times give his/her professional best to be a worthy member of the Association.
- A member will practice his/her profession by offering knowledge, skill and understanding in the solving of environmental, people and space related problems to individuals, the public and other professions.
- A member may take out advertising space in any media to advertise his/her professional services providing it is within the framework of the Code of Ethics and under the following conditions:
  - when advertising in any media, must not mention any fees, nor take credit for work not solely his/hers without giving credit to other participating parties;
  - by using a temporary project sign where work is being carried out;
  - by using a letter or brochure to a potential client;
  - by using an announcement for the introduction or completion of a project.
- Intern members shall use the designation Intern Interior Designer, Intern IDNB or Intern member on business cards and stationery, temporary project signs, building plaques, professional documents, office identification signs, building directories and similar professional notices.
- Members will not discriminate against any business associate, employee or applicant because of race, religion, sex, national origin, age, handicap or sexual orientation.
- Members should conduct themselves in a professional manner to inspire the confidence, respect and trust of their clients and of the public.
